

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 381
By Hood

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Lee Victory on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, the Tennessee General Assembly is pleased to specially recognize meritorious citizens who work hard, take satisfaction in a job well done and serve their communities with extraordinary diligence and dedication; and

WHEREAS, Lee Victory, who at age 81 has announced his retirement, is one such exemplary resident of Smyrna; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Victory has been an electrician, a plumber and a city employee during his illustrious career. He has generously assisted many members of his community over the years, whether they had the money to pay for his services or not; and

WHEREAS, the epitome of the finest traditions of the Volunteer State, he will continue to lend his time, energy and expertise as a valuable member of the Rutherford County Property Assessors Board, the Rutherford County Highway Commission, and the Middle Tennessee Electric Membership Cooperative Board; and

WHEREAS, having donated countless hours to help others, his impressive list of public service posts includes astute service as a County Commissioner and as a member of numerous boards; and

WHEREAS, he was a faithful husband to his late wife, Ruie, who was an excellent helpmate and great cook; and
